Subject: Faithfulness

Every Christian Can Declare That God Is Faithful.
But In Order To Do So We Must Recall To Our

This Is Evident Because Of:

- 1. The Presence Of God - Lam.
3:22b {His}
- 2. The Performance Of God - Lam.
3:23(great)
- 3. The Provision Of God -
Lam. 3:23(Faithfulness)

Vs. 24-26

And We Need To Remember
GOD IS FAITHFUL!!!

Intro: The book of Lamentations is a series of dirges, or songs of mourning, that were written against the backdrop of the Babylonian invasion and destruction of Jerusalem. In the verses of this book, we can see the awful sufferings endured by the people of that city at the hand of their enemies. Still, even in the midst of all the pain and the turmoil, God had His man in Jerusalem to record the events and to bring honor to His Name.

The writer of the book of Lamentations is believed to be Jeremiah. He was known as the Weeping Prophet. A study of Jeremiah's life reveals a portrait of unending sadness and deep depression. Allow me to give you some of the background for this precious man of God.

- 1. Received an unwanted call to minister - Jer. 1:5-6.
- 2. Called to a ministry of preaching nothing but judgment - Jer. 1:9-10.
- 3. He was forbidden to marry so that he might give himself more fully to his ministry of proclaiming the impending judgment of God - Jer. 16:1-13. As a result he was very familiar with loneliness.

4. He was a man of deep sadness and he wept openly about the sins of his people - Jer. 9:1.
5. He endured depression as the result of his message going unheeded for so long. He even came to the point where he tried to get out of the ministry, Jer. 20:9. His pain is understandable, because in a ministry that spanned some 50 years, there is no records of even, one single convert.
6. He suffered imprisonment by King Zedekiah because the king did not approve of Jeremiah's preaching - Jer. 32:5. Even while the Babylonians are invading the city in fulfillment of his prophetic declarations, Jeremiah is sitting in the dungeon - Jer. 32:2.
7. After Jerusalem falls and many have been killed or taken captive, the prophet does not gloat or take an "I told you so" mentality. Instead, he becomes broken with the remnant and enters into suffering with them - Lamentations 1-5.

After enduring a life like this; after being rejected, hated, mocked, imprisoned, ignored; after seeing his beloved Jerusalem ransacked, desecrated and destroyed; after experiencing the horror of war, the brutality of the enemy and the pangs of hunger, Jeremiah was still able to stand forth amid the rubble of the city and the bodies of the dead and lift his voice in praise to God for His great, unfailing faithfulness to His people.

How was this possible? Despite his trials and his troubles, Jeremiah had gotten a good grasp on the reality of just Who God is! Jeremiah knew that whether things went well, or whether everything fell apart, God would still be God and that God would be eternally faithful to His people, Ill. Lam. 3:21! Jeremiah was still able to find hope in a hopeless situation because he believed in the faithfulness of His great God.

Like Jeremiah, we all go through times when life seems to fall apart at the seams. When these times come we also need the blessed assurance that God is faithful! Thankfully the Bible gives overwhelming evidence of the unchanging faithfulness of our great God. Ill. The word "Faithfulness" in verse 23. This is a word which means "firmness, fidelity, steadiness, steadfastness." This word pictures God as One upon Whom we can depend. We can be sure that as we face the storms, trials and valleys of life, God will ever prove Himself to be steadfast and faithful to you and me. To put it very simply, you can count on the Lord!

“Till He Come”

I Corinthians 11:23-31

I. “Till” is a WAITING word

“Till” is not speculation but anticipation.

II. “Till” is a WORKING word

We will work till Jesus comes.

III. “Till” is a WILLING word

“Till” is a word which comes out of our hearts with a great sense of longing and desire.

IV . “Till” is a WONDERFUL word

You proclaim the Lord's death “till He come.”

Paul did not say “if He come.”

Paul did not say “In case He come.”

He says, “till He come.”

No doubt about His coming.

May not be sure as to the time,

but I am sure about the event.

Lord's Supper what it is not for:

□ It's not for FOOLISHNESS vs11:17 “Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.” (Time of soberness)

□ It's not for FIGHTING vs11:18 “For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.” (III: Family events)

□ It's not for FEEDING vs11:20-22 “When ye come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. 21 For in eating every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken. 22 What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not." (Not time to come eat)

Lord's Supper what it is for

I. IT'S FOR FELLOWSHIP

(Communion) vs10:15 "I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. 16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?"

Vs10:21 "But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. 10:21 Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils."

II. IT'S FOR FAMILY (Companions)

vs10:17 "For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread."

III. IT'S FOR FESTIVITY (Commemoration)

vs11:24, 26 "24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me." "26 For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till he come."

IV. IT'S FOR FIDELITY (Commitment)

vs11:23-26a "For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: 11:24 And when he had given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. 11:25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. 11:26 For as often as ye eat this bread,"

V. IT'S FOR FOCUSING (Concern)

vs11:28 "But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup."

VI. IT'S FOR FILTERING (Consecration)

vs11:29 "For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body."

VII. IT'S FOR FIXING (Conformity) vs11:31-

32 "For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. 11:32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world

An old sailor repeatedly got lost at sea, so his friends gave him a compass and urged him to use it. The next time he went out in his boat, he followed their advice and took the compass with him. But as usual he became hopelessly confused and was unable to find land.

Finally, his friends rescued him. Disgusted and impatient with him, they asked, "Why didn't you use that compass we gave you? You could have saved us a lot of trouble!" The sailor responded, "I didn't dare to! I wanted to go north, but as hard as I tried to make the needle aim in that direction, it just kept on pointing southeast." The old sailor was so certain he knew which way was north that he stubbornly tried to force his own personal persuasion on his compass. Unable to do so, he tossed it aside as worthless and failed to benefit from the guidance it offered.
