

Uncle Leroy got a job at the weekly newspaper in our town. He finally worked his way up to become a writer for the paper. On his first article he got things a little confused - He had two articles - one on a wedding and one on a farm auction sale... Leroy accidentally laid the two drafts down side by side and typed his article -/-

His article turned out as follows....

"Bob Jones and Jane Smith are to be disposed of at public auction at my farm one mile east of a beautiful cluster of roses on her gown before a background of farm implements too numerous to mention in the presence of seventy guests including two milk cows, six mules, and one bobsled.

The pastor tied the nuptial knot with 200 feet of good hay wire. The bride wore a dark blue frock of green crepe with a full set of hames and traces, carrying in her hand several good bales of alfalfa hay. Bridesmaids wore two nice, fat Duroc hogs weighing about 250 pounds each. The groom, attended by a 2 & 1/2 year-old Hereford bull, wore the conventional black. The bride entered upon the arm of her father, who was carrying a good double-barrel .12 guage Remington shotgun now for sale cheap. The wedding march was played by a three horsepower gasoline engine on a good two-row corn cultivator with grass seed and corn drill plates. The bridal party left on one good John Deere tractor for an extended trip with terms to suit the purchaser. They will be home to their friends with one good baby buggy and a few other kitchen implements after date of sale to responsible parties and some fifty chickens.
